Crime in the most diverse circles, with the most astonishing motives and surprising outcomes. And a topography of crime, because Ursula März has accompanied trials from almost every district of Berlin as a court reporter since the 1990s. Milieu stories, individual fates, social conditions - everything comes together to create a fascinating picture of our present day. Literarily condensed and grippingly told.

In this reading, Ursula März, who was born in Herzogenaurach and is known to many from various episodes of the ZEIT crime podcast with Sabine Rückert and Andreas Sentker, presents her most exciting cases. The reading starts at 7.00 pm in the town hall meeting room.
