Information material & publications

Whether the bilingual directory for new citizens or tips for families - there is a variety on brochures and information material available at the Tourist Information for free.

Get an overview yourself: On this page you can browse through the brochures and download them. If you would like to hold the brochures in your hands, then just visit the tourist information.

Book tip "Stories from Herzogenaurach"

In this book about Herzogenaurach, formulated in a relaxed magazine style in English and German, rounded off with expressive photographs, the unique attitude to life of this town - as diverse as the people who have made their home here - can be felt on over 100 pages. You are welcome to browse the book at the Tourist Information. It costs EUR 22.00.
