Family flea market

Give your old treasures the opportunity to find a new home! Twice a year, the Generationen.Zentrum organises a family flea market in the Weihersbach area. The next flea market will take place on 14 September 2024. Make a note of the date now.

You really can find everything here: from children's toys and porcelain to great trainers! And it's also a great opportunity to make space in your own cellar or attic. Be honest: who doesn't still have things in good condition that are far too good to throw away? So make a note of the date now!

You will receive information on the conditions of participation and registration here in the summer.
